3. Collect: Treasurer Leslie Landry takes the matter into her hands and decides that calling collect is the cheapest way to phone a friend.

4. Person-to-Person: Rather than call Kathy McCulley, Bret Pielstick chooses to meet her in person.

5. Foreign: What's better than calling a foreign country? Well, how about being with a foreign student? Raymond Alonso, Brit Orvander and Agneta Willard, are all Cal Hi's International friends.

6. Operator: Craig Cline seems to enjoy his work after school as he calls on Roberta Croy and Kelly Blankenship to give them a little operator assistance.

7,8,9. Obscene: What!?!? Did Mr. Davidson's class hear Mrs. Osborne whisper obscenities over the P.A. system? Maybe she is just making an announcement about a leaky bathroom pipeline.

10. Toll-Free: With open space schools people can go just about anywhere for no cost.

11. Conference: Although most conference calls involve at least three people, Darean Debow and Mr. Bailey settle for a conversation between the two of them.

12. Mobile: To call on someone across campus you have to have transportation. You can become mobile using your feet, bike, or car.

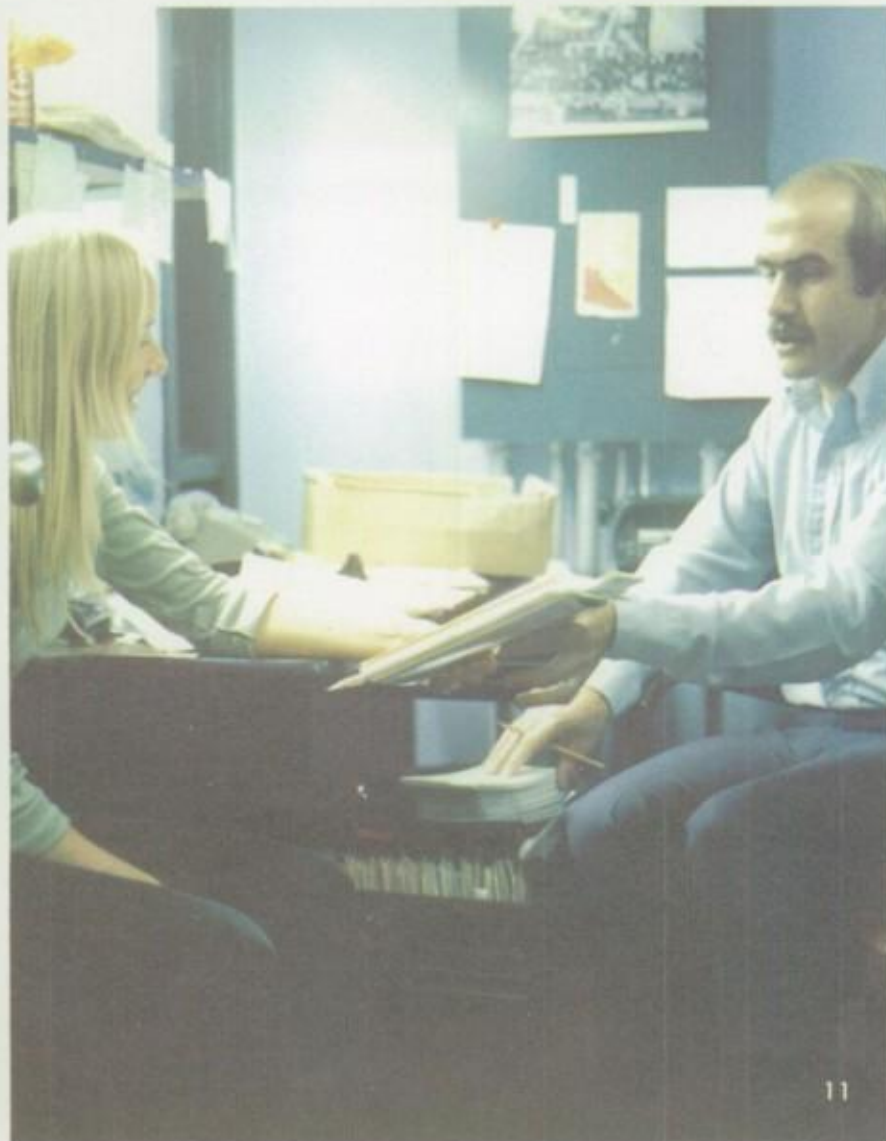

13. Party Line: Pssst, you in the clown outfits. Don't you realize that's not the type of celebration we had in mind when we discussed party line?

senior class officers

Our senior class officers have done a tremendous job in planning activities and fund raisers. They have all worked extremely hard to make this year a great one for everyone involved.

Some of the activities enjoyed by the senior class were, the Senior Ball, Senior Picnic, and the Senior All-Nighter, to name just a few.

We all owe our appreciation to these four fine students for their great efforts.

farewell my friend

I love you my friend you're quite dear to me, a true friend you were
and always will be.
But you're gone now perhaps we will meet in the future someday.
You've left me with memories of good times we've had to treasure forever and make me feel good.
In all that you do may all of life's pleasures come your way too.
Farewell now my friend and please may you find some thoughts of me always in your mind . . .

Tami Nodlinski

twinkle in her shining eyes.
Patty you are timeless, you always were and you always will be. God bless you and keep you, Patty, we love you. We're saddened because you're not here now to lighten our days but you're not gone, not really, you gave too much while you were here. You live on in all of us

Mr. Leone's class celebrates "The Year of the Snake," the Spirit week was full of activities for each day of the week. Such as: Monday - Nostalgia Day, Tuesday - Freak Day, Wednesday - Hero Day, Thursday - Shang-Hai Day, Friday - Spirit Day and Homecoming Night, and Saturday - Homecoming Dance. Cal High's students showed much spirit during this week with different costumes for the different days, and in participating in the class activities . . . These activities consisted of - Monday, Cal High's band played at lunch, Tuesday there was a V.W. stuffing and trash can races. Wednesday the football team, coaches, and teachers were auctioned off for Shang-Hai Day, Thursday no activities were planned, then there was a rally on Friday.

1. "Did you see what that monster did to Bob Davidson?" commented Shannon Mitchel to Tracy Mitchel.
2. Even the judges participated in getting dressed up for Nostalgia Day.
3. One of our well known Business teachers, Mrs. Welch, dressing up for Shang-Hai Day.

spirit week wrap-up

The third annual Spirit Week was really a lot of fun this year. Every day had a different theme and each day the most original and the most overdone costumes were chosen, the Spirit Week winners were as follows: Freak Day; Debbie Claussen, Paul Rutledge and Toni Vavrek, Nostalgia Day; Sheryl Davis, Don Diers, Leslie Landry and Paula Ruhl, Hero Day; Boo Duran, Judy Duran, Denise Torkildson and Toni Vavrek, American Day; Debbie Bryant and Melanie Holloway, and Spirit Day; Sue Helgesen, Barb Kothe, and Tanya Stack. The winners and everybody else involved really showed a lot of spirit and made Spirit Week a big success. Bands came, class competitions took place, and everybody had a good time and of course that's what it's all about. The whole student body got a chance to join in the fun and activities and a lot of people did in one way or another. It's enough to make you look forward to next year.

diablo assemblies

The DA was held on February 26, 1977, at the Diablo Country Club and was a smashing success. Forty-five couples from Cal High attended this annual event. Everyone received champagne glasses, courtesy of the DA. There were free soft drinks and free pictures taken under a trellis. The band was great and everybody enjoyed themselves to the fullest.

far eastern rates

As part of their studies on Oriental culture the Humanities Department has had several extraordinary activities. February 23, 1977, Frosh and Soph Humanities students cast their inhibitions to the wind, dared fate and bravely boarded the BART "Chinatown Special." We got out at the Montgomery St. Station and trekked across Market St. to mysterious San Francisco Chinatown, a district of S.F. full of shops, restaurants and much liveliness and activity, since our trip was at the time of the Chinese New Year. The Year of the Serpent was being ushered in, marking the 4675th year of Chinese civilization. We all walked to the heart of Chinatown and had authentic Chinese cuisine for lunch followed by an exhibit of Han and T'ang Dynasty tomb murals from the People's Republic of China. We ended the day with a guided tour of Chinatown and then it was back to California High. On March 4th, 1977, we got a look at the very ancient martial art, Kung Fu or Whu Shu by Steve Magness and Jeff Torquemada. The demonstration involved a brief talk on the history of the art, several forms of the Kung Fu techniques, a weapons demonstration (spear and staff) and a practical application of Kung Fu as self-defense. In the self-defense, Mr. Torquemada acted as the attacker. The audience really enjoyed seeing him thrown around and at last report he was coming to school with bruised buns. In spite of its apparent violent nature, Kung Fu was actually developed as an exercise. Ron Leone and several students got up and learned the beginnings of Tai-Chi, another form of exercise. King Fu, we learned, is an art beautiful to watch and it requires many years of dedicated practice to learn.

executive interns

The Executive Interns are a select group of students who take a semester's leave of absence from school to work at the managerial level of various large organizations. Of the 46 Junior and Senior students from our school district, who participated in the program this year, 20 of them were from California

High.

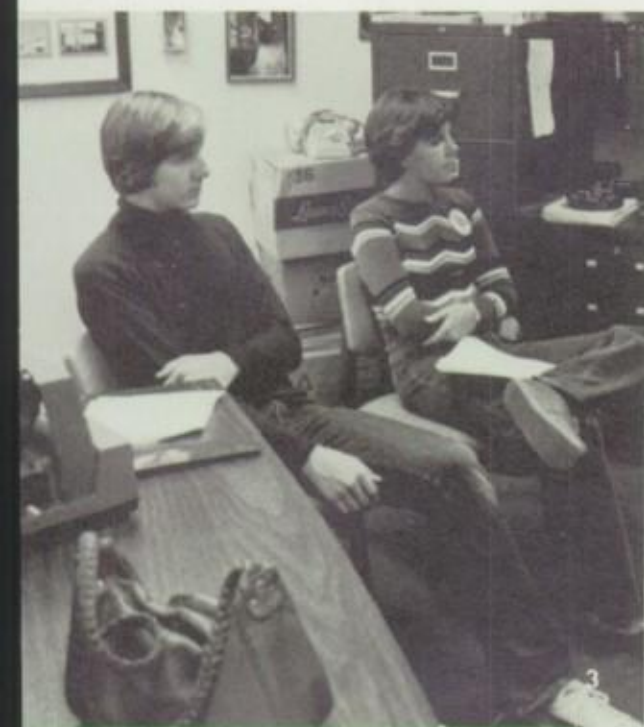

It's really an exciting experience and gives the students a chance to find out what the "real" world is like.

1. These are this first Semesters Interns in a meeting with Mr. Berger. Left to right, top row: Laura Merritt, who worked at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in San Francisco; Gordon West, whose placement was Walnut Creek Public Services; and Vince Rowell who worked for the School District with Mr. Petersdorf. Second row: Cindy Brown and Lisa Halpin both worked at American Airlines at the San Francisco Airport; and Jory Harmon who worked at the Drake-Wilshire Hotel in San Francisco.

3. Now it's Laura and Vince's turn to listen to the words of wisdom given to the new Interns by Ernie Berger.

4. The second semester of this year these were the Interns from Cal.: Ward Reynolds with the Drake-Wilshire Hotel, Karen Ernest with Western Airlines at the San Francisco Airport, Howard Hammons at Walnut Creek

Public Services, Mark Guzman who works at the Contra Costa County Office of Economic Opportunity, Linda Salas worked at Walnut Creek Leisure Services, Gail Matsumoto worked at Franklin Savings and Loan in Danville, and Diane McPherson worked for the Contra Costa County Probation Department. On the ground we have: Laura Schilling, with KOED television in San Francisco, Bill Murray who worked with the School Districts Nutrition Project, Claire Thomas with the Hyatt Regency Hotel, and Bob Burk who worked at Aerograph Instruments in Walnut Creek. Not pictured are Marty Anthony who worked at Robert Pease Advertising, Mary Clark from the County Sheriff's Office, and Karen Hamby from the Exploritorium in S.F. 6 & 7. The first half was going pretty tough. The Raiders were called for Jump Balling in the warm up, and Clutch Shot Carter wouldn't let go of the ball. Red Devil Welch was all over the court but had a little trouble getting the ball through the hoop. Mauler Marr and Mean Mamma Mansfield kept the Raiders in their place while Bomber Blaedel and Gunner Galvin sank them in. Time out Tovey and Wild Women Woods tiptoe through the mustard weed and with two seconds on the clock, Last Shot Lewis saves the day. (Well almost.) Our Luscious Legs, Mr. McGinnis, keeps the spirit going and Dave Dalby is called on a "Ballooning" foul for having the wrong color balloon.

The second half of the game was getting pretty rough when John Pecio sticks his big nose in and gets it broke. (Well that's the breaks.) Mr. Spurlin decides to lend a hand, all three of them, but it looked like only a miracle could save the Cal High Faculty. When out of no where appears Lousy Leone and he chucks up two points for Cal High. Things began to lighten up throughout the rest of the game, but toward the end of the last quarter Cal High struggles to catch up. But once again the Raiders prove that they're still number one with a score of 43 to 48!

Cal High's first Career Day was held March 2nd, and it was a huge success! The program asked the question "What will you be doing ten years from now?". Students in grades 9-12 were allowed the opportunity of attending three sessions of their choice during second, third and fourth periods, to assist them in deciding on what careers they might be interested in and what careers are not for them. There was quite a variety of professions to choose from, with speakers representing the following fields:

2. Alexandra Proroczok is the Junior Class Secretary-Treasurer. She has done an excellent job holding one position that has the responsibilities of two people.

3. Cindy Smith diligently helps put the finishing touches on the Junior Class Homecoming float.

4. And it's race to the finish for Todd Pelley and Jeff Billings. Let's just hope they don't drop Kathy Wahlig again.

5. Being Junior Class Vice President involves a lot of hard work, and Kelly Dykes willingly finds the time to help with the class activities.

varsity and j.v. baseball

This year's Varsity and J.V. baseball teams are hot stuff. The reason for this is a lot of talent, team pride, and school spirit. As of the printing of this book they were practicing and drilling hard to prepare for the coming season, as you can see by the shots taken at practice.

crank calls

Everyday at school, people get caught in the act of being themselves. Sometimes this might be a quiet moment of thought, or a ridiculous moment of laughter. It can happen to anybody, anytime, from the most outrageous class clown to the most intellectual of students, and even to those people whose names you could never quite remember.

1. Dave Lanier's entry for the 1977 "Ugly Mug Contest."
2. Miss Smeltzer bravely holds back the masses of eager students clamoring to sign for her classes.
3. Brett Pielstick has many vices and clamping metal is one of them.
4. Julie Johnson caught in a moment of silent reflection.
5. "Oh darn!", Deanna Hoffman thinks, "I wish I would have remembered my glasses, I can't seem to find my books."
6. According to Tim Larin, silent singing is permitted in the library.
7. Sharon Goodman inquisitively wonders why our photographer wants a picture of her.
8. While stuffing a V.W., Julie Ebey screams for help. If I had to sit on Dave Neilson's lap, I'd scream too.
8. "Could you please direct me to the nearest Looney Bin?" Sure Mr. Forrest, you must be crazy if you're going to let D'Ray Pemperton drive!

3. Debbie Claassen, Activities Chairperson and Jacob D. (dog) Osheroff, Political Mascot of Student Government, have been really busy this year. Debbie has done a great job of planning this years activities. And Jacob has been busy making his daily rounds through the school. Thanks Debbie and Jacob.

4. Susan Deslaurier, Student Body Vice-president did a terrific job this year. She really showed alot of spirit and determination in trying to help the students of Cal High.

5. Leslie Landry, Student Body Treasurer, had alot of responsibility this year. She helped out at all of the fund raisers, and is truly an essential asset to Cal High. Thank you, Leslie for your great work.

6. Tina Lippis, Publicity Chairperson, worked quite hard this year. She made every effort possible to do her job well. Her efforts were fruitful and she really helped Cal High out. Good job!

7. Wendy Hayward Student Body Secretary sure was busy this year. She was full of spirit and ideas, I hope every one at Cal High appreciates her fine work.

+ 1

On these two pages we have the Administration + 1. The one is Rees Peters, who belongs to no pod so we gave her a little promotion and included her in the Administration.

1. Mr. Davis and Mr. Berger, our Vice-Principal and Principal respectively, as they observe the construction of the new shop area.
2. Mr. Giannini is our Dean of the Coast Pod and also serves as the liaison between the Executive Interns and the school.
3. Mr. Rose is one of our fearless counselors whose territory is the valley pod.
4. Mrs. McClellan must be our most "Humane" Dean, since she presides over the humanities pod.
5. Ms. Blaedel counsels the inhabitants of the Mountain Pod, and is the advisor of the California Scholarship Federation Club.
6. Mr. Bailey is the counselor of the Coast Pod, and is the one for Seniors to see about Scholarships.
7. Rees Peters teaches English in the room behind the theater - she refers to it as "The Tomb."
8. Mr. White is our Dean with the most variety since he works with the Special Unit, which includes everything from Science to Home Economics.
9. Mrs. Marris is the Dean of the mountain pod, and is a new addition to the administration this year.
10. Mrs. O'Rand is the Dean of the Valley Pod, and is also known as a spirited teacher.
11. Here we have Mrs. Coyle who is the counselor for the Desert Pod.

calling coast pod

The Coast Pod is a unique pod. This year the students and the teachers have really worked hard in developing the theme. The teachers are also involved in a team teaching program. Team teaching is a creative approach to traditional teaching methods.

1. Bill Herrera is a social studies teacher. He is involved in various activities within the school such as coaching Varsity basketball and advising the Student Council.

2. Susan Carter teaches German with enthusiasm as shown here. Also advisor of the German club, Mrs. Carter teaches all the aspects of German, from the fun to the grammar.

3. Fred Albano is both an exceptional math teacher and a quick, and skilled sportsman. One of his favorite pastimes is skiing. He is the newlywed of the pod.

4. Ed Lewis, the retired barber, teaches social studies and coaches Freshman Football and J.V. Baseball. He enjoys backpacking and rafting.

5. John Splitstoser is a very creative and ambitious English teacher. He is a very skilled person and he is working on his Master's Degree.

6. Candy Woods, being cheerleading advisor, is a peppy person. She teaches a variety of math classes, from 7-8 grade to Math Analysis, and was once upon a time a yearbook photographer.

7. Jon Rego is a very talented Spanish teacher. He is very conscientious about his health and he is the coach of the Varsity Soccer team.

8. Mick Trunnell, the lingua lover, teaches Driver's Ed. and Health. He coaches wrestling and likes the Warriors, traveling and surfing.

The Humanities Program was originally created last year in order to strengthen the relationship between different classes, such as English and Social Studies. Students learn both the literature and historical facts that took place during that period of time.

The teachers in the pod are the finest. They have all contributed many long hours and a lot of hard work. These teachers deserve much gratitude from the students of Cal. High.

dial "m" for mountain pod

This fall the Mountain Pod should be called the "Jock Pod" because so many of the teachers are coaches, but this isn't all they do. Each teacher has individual unique interests.

1, 2. Maren Hall is the French teacher here at Cal. High. She has also been a Spanish teacher and studied at many interesting universities, such as University of Valencia, University of Madrid, University of Paris and the Catholic University of the West in Angers, France.

3. When Shirley Tranter is not teaching English she is usually spending time working at her ranch. She also enjoys eating unusual food such as garden snails.

4. Bob Swansen has been teaching Spanish for 14 years. Part of this success comes from the many trips he's taken to study and vacation in Mexico.

5. This is a rare position to catch Mike McGinnis in. He's usually waving his yard (discipline) stick in the air. This comes from his previous experience as a policeman with his billy club.

6. Have you ever seen Tom Zechlin jogging? Of course, it's one of his favorite pastimes. He also teaches math and coaches various sports.

7. Social Studies teacher John Pescio teaches his class with practicality in mind. This comes from working at his own business.

8. Other than being a Math teacher Jim Spurlin spends a lot of time with his family. He also enjoys many sports including snow skiing, golf, tennis, and coaching football.

9. Ying Pestien an avid yoga fan and a new American citizen as of last year, teaches math.

10. Our English and drama teacher John Cretan incorporates his acting experiences into his classes by conducting them with enthusiasm.

special unit

1. Will Chan is a science teacher here at California High. He teaches various types of math classes and is involved in a few after school activities such as, coaching the girls volleyball team for the seventh and eighth graders. He graduated from Sacramento State University in 1973 and also attended U.C.B. in 1975. From there he has then come to California High. He enjoys tennis and motorcycling. 2. Corrine Petrich is one of our newest P.E. teachers at Cal. High. She graduated from Sacramento State University in 1976 and then came here to Cal. High. She coaches the J.V. Swim Team, J.V. Basketball, and also Girls Softball. She really enjoys reading and various sports. 3. Bob Benatar has been faithfully teaching here for 4 years. He teaches various P.E. classes and coaches the Varsity Baseball and Girls' Basketball teams. He enjoys tennis, running, and various other activities. 4. Sue Goddard is another faithful teacher at Cal. High. She's been teaching P.E. classes now for 4 years. She enjoys coaching the Jr. High Volleyball and Softball teams. Her interests include various sports, car rallies and playing cards. 5. Rick Moitoza is our beloved Cross Country Coach and P.E. teacher. He's been teaching here for 4 years and really loves to get involved. He coaches the Freshman Basketball team and he really enjoys photography. 6. Dick Casio has taught science in our great department downstairs for 4 years and is now the audio-visual coordinator for the school. High outside interests include music and animals. 7. Mike Harper is one of our science teachers. His favorite pastime is giving tests and whenever he gives a test he always dresses up. (Strange isn't he?) He enjoys gardening and landscaping and during the summer he is a commercial fisherman. 8. Bill Pence is a new teacher at California High. He is part of our great science staff downstairs. 9. Holly Chaffer teaches supplementary studies. She enjoys and practices yoga. 10. Linda Smeltzer has been with us for 4 years. She is a P.E. Teacher and enjoys working with her modern dance class. 11. Joe Camporeale has been a P.E. Teacher at Cal. High for 3 years. He enjoys working with the adult physical conditioning class at school. 12. Boyer August teaches the opportunity class and is head of the Students' Rights Committee. His interests at this point in time are focused on Education. 13. Pat Wagner is one of our terrific science teachers here at Cal. High. He has a wide variety of interests which include camping. While camping he enjoys hunting for "Pet Rocks" and from what we understand he has a wide variety of them. But his most favorite pastime is entertaining his new daughter Anne Kristine. Congratulations. 14. Mari Scott Paraprofessional and Supplementary Studies teacher. She works downstairs with Holly Chaffer and is very interested in T.M. 15. Ken Carroll, Master of science and chemistry, has been a teacher at Cal. High for 2 years. In his spare time he manages the coaches' swimming and advises the Senior Service Organization.

support staff directory

The support staff of Cal. High is the back-bone of the school. For without them, we could not have a functioning school. We tend to take them for granted, but hopefully through this page they will get their just recognition and reward. The students appreciate their smiling faces on a dreary day and their willingness to help the students even if it exceeds the call of duty.

1. Sue Wooten is a familiar figure around Cal. High. She has been in charge of the library's A-V department for the last 4 years.

2. Janitors Fred Tucci and Tom Ries enjoy their lunch break.

3. Norma O'Driscoll holds the position of Data Processing Secretary.

4. Some of our unseen heroes who have kept our school spotless through the year. Pictured are: Bob Fiegal, Ernie Remke, Pete Maury, Bob Russell, Kevin McClure, Tom Ries and Fred Tucci.

5. Keeping 1,300 mouths fed is no easy task, but our cafeteria staff provides plenty of food and smiles for everyone. Pictured from left to right are: Pat Schell, Betty Laskey, and Barbara Woore.

6. Our man with the green thumb, Butch Fletcher, can always be found working hard to turn brown desolation into green oasis.

7. Kathy Allen, our new Librarian, attended high school in England. She has lived in Paris and 7 states in the U.S. Welcome to California Kathy!

8. Nancy Hall, a graduate of Cal. State San Diego, has worked hard through the year in assisting students with their college and career choices.

9. Counseling secretary, Sandy Galvan, is shown here getting tied up in her work (or is that tied up in the typewriter ribbon?).

10. The Outside Work Experience program here at Cal. High has greatly benefited from the work of Dick Nodlinski who has worked many long hours to establish the program here. Mr. Nod also teaches a computer class.

11. Our office staff (from left to right) Pat Osborn, Attendance secretary, Ina Lambert, Secretary, Gloria Hammons, Bookkeeper, and Barbara Quackenbush, secretary.

12. Roberta Priddy, a native Californian, has the task of organizing our ever popular foe, the textbook. Roberta enjoys traveling and seeing the outdoors.

team beat Dublin High. The score: 4-3. Good going! STOP. Thursday, valley pod gives the busy signal

The Valley Pod feels that they earn the reputation of being the most "togetherest" pod. Under the supervision of Mrs. O'Rand (all teachers agree she's the greatest) the pod runs very smoothly. The main goal of the pod is that the teachers and students work harmoniously. We feel they have succeeded in reaching their goal. They are proud of the fact that they can have fun yet still be organized. The Valley Pod stands for togetherness.

1. Gary Triebwaser: As well as being new to Cal. High, Mr. Triebwaser is also new to teaching. His school-orientated interests lie around the water, as he is a judge and starter for the girls swim team, and assistant coach for the boys team. He teaches Math, stressing good discipline and study habits in all of his classes. 2. Dan Sapone: Grammatically speaking, Mr. Sapone teaches English in the Valley Pod. (Yes, he actually does do something else besides play tennis.) He teaches with the idea in mind of helping students find out what they are really good at. 3. Ed Noble: Known by his difficult classes (and hard yardstick), Mr. Noble is the Senior High Math teacher in the Valley Pod. He is a living example of the cliché, "Give a man an inch and he'll take a foot" for he also rules over the Athletic Department. 4. Jamie Marron: As a reading teacher, Miss Marron really puts herself into her work. She goes by the saying, "Success depends on the second letter." For those students not in her class, that second letter stands for you..(U).

5. Kathleen Lewis: Always chipper, Miss Lewis is a great English teacher. She's very enthusiastic about any project she works on. The Valley Pod is lucky to have Cat Stevens' number 1 fan on their staff. 6. Abbie Normal: New to the school this year, Miss Normal has quickly become a favorite of students as well as teachers. She enjoys her position in the Art Department, especially when she is in the company of Mr. Leone. She claims Mr. Torquemada is too short for her. 7. Mary Brunner: Caught in a rare pose, Mrs. Brunner is actually spending a moment at rest. She goes by the saying "Anything worth doing is worth doing well." For Mrs. Brunner there are many things worth doing. That's the breaks of being a Social Studies teacher in the Valley Pod. 8. Mary Kay Lim: Indeed Cal. High struck lucky this year when they acquired Mrs. Lim from Monta Vista. She is a Social Studies teacher who likes health and physical activities. Mrs. Lim feels it is better to think of her students more on a human level, rather than a pupil-teacher level. 9. Eric Davidson: Don't worry Carrot Man, you're only being photographed for the yearbook, not for the centerfold of "The Great Outdoorsman." A teacher of Social Studies, Mr. Davidson is better known for his "Bigfoot" hikes in the summer. He is also known for his ponytail, which has now become a registered trademark of Cal. High. 10. Colleen Tovey: "Busy" is what Mrs. Tovey's middle name should be for she is always on the go. This doesn't prevent her from being an excellent Math teacher. Beware, if you go into her class uneducated, you won't come out that way.

Where are you going after graduation?

How about into a promising job in electronics? Airport service? Or sea-going engineering?

These are just a few of the more than 70 different career fields Navy training offers.

If you can make the grade.

Training for skills to build a great future.

Using your hands. Your mind.

Leading others. Being responsible for your own job.

It's tough work. And there are daily chores, too.

But there's more to Navy life. Plenty more.

Travel. Good times. Lifelong friendships.

And if you sign up now, you won't have to report for up to six months. Or even nine months, if you qualify for a school program.

Want to go places after high school? Talk to your Navy Recruiter. He can even tell you what you qualify for before you enlist. Or send us this coupon. Or call 800-841-8000 anytime. It's toll-free.

A good job. A good life. The Navy: It's a good deal.

I want to know more about the Navy, especially about:

- ☐ The 70 different career fields and the training that goes with them.
- ☐ Nuclear Power Program.
- ☐ Advanced Electronics Program.
- ☐ Enlisting now, and reporting up to 9 months later.
- ☐ I want to know more. Call me.

Tips

When dialing be sure to bring your finger all of the way around to the finger stop for each digit and then release the dial without forcing or retarding its return.

Good party-line neighbors make sure their children don't monopolize the telephone. Others may want to call you.

Every hello is a good buy.

Bell scientists and engineers are among the most progressive "thinkers" in research today. They have to be in order to keep up with the nations demands.

To be heard clearly . . . please speak directly into the telephone with your lips just clearing the mouthpiece.

Bye!

Hi Ann!
I'm in a great mood! You better watch out cause I'm dangerous when I'm wired. How are ya?
Have fun in finals we're still got all week to rack. Aint that a depressing thought? Well, even when I'm in a wild mood I cant think of anything civilized to write so I'll sign off. See ya later, Alligator.

Ann,
I really don't know how all you so much that your a real sweet person
Love Cindy

Ann, more from you know what Right! Just war a tell you have a summer. I will see I don't leave + see to soon. I don't touch. I'll nice probably if I don't address summer, if I don't touch. I'll text as to soon. I don't touch. I'll you write you, with me back. Just so next year can write me back. Just be well! I better say bye! Later! Love aq
